

ANDRIEA DENISE

On Purpose

Andria Denise is an author, educator, mentor, philanthropist, singer/songwriter, and creative entrepreneur. She is also the founder of The Write Mind Studio, an online hub for self-improvement resources which include vision writing journals, personal growth and development books, advice filled articles, and spiritual guidance videos. In addition to creating inspirational content for the website, Andria teaches vision writing workshops. Her technique focuses on showing others how to use journaling as a way to write their vision and turn it into an actionable plan they can realistically achieve. Andria Denise is passionate about operating in her purpose and inspiring others to do the same.

Andriea has been an educator for over 12 years. In the Education field, Andriea served as a Middle College Coordinator where she mentored and guided dual credit students through their academic careers. She gained first-hand understanding of their struggles and currently offers helpful knowledge and practical advice to students regarding overcoming obstacles and achieving their goals.

To further serve her community, Andriea developed an after-school program known as Let It Out, where young girls were offered a safe space to share their thoughts and receive support and sound advice from peers and mentors. Today, Andriea continues working in the community, volunteering at various organizations, offering courses, vocal coaching, audience building, and administrative assistance.

As a creative in the arts, Andriea has written, recorded, and traveled internationally to perform original music. Throughout her career, Andriea has garnered a wealth of knowledge in the areas of creative and business writing, multimedia communications, marketing, and branding.

VISION WRITING WORKSHOP

Andriea Denise's now popular Vision Writing Workshop focuses on connecting the mind with goal setting and goal achievement. The workshop consists of providing practical techniques and inspiration that help participants to properly tune their belief systems to the best frequency, to write their vision, and to create a solid plan of action to bring their vision to life. Andriea initially created the workshop for adults, but has since tailored it to also suit youth audiences.
